Office of the Secretary of State

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

of

NOBLESVILLE PARKS FOUNDATION INC.

I, Connie Lawson, Secretary of State of Indiana, hereby certify that Articles of Incorporation of the above Non-Profit Domestic Corporation has been presented to me at my office, accompanied by the fees prescribed by law and that the documentation presented conforms to law as prescribed by the provisions of the Indiana Nonprofit Corporation Act of 1991.

NOW, THEREFORE, with this document I certify that said transaction will become effective Wednesday, April 17, 2013.

In Witness Whereof, I have caused to be affixed my signature and the seal of the State of Indiana, at the City of Indianapolis, April 17, 2013

Connie Lawson

CONNIE LAWSON,
SECRETARY OF STATE

BYLAWS
OF

Noblesville Parks Foundation, Inc.

ARTICLE 1
Name

Section 1.1 Name.

The name of the Foundation shall be Noblesville Parks Foundation, hereinafter referred to as the Foundation.

ARTICLE 2
Purpose and Powers

Section 2.1 Non-Profit Purpose.

This Foundation is organized as a public benefit corporation and its activities shall be conducted in such a manner that the Foundation does not afford pecuniary gain, incidentally or otherwise, to its members. The purpose for which the foundation is organized is to promote, aid and encourage the purposes, activities and endeavors of every kind and description, or connected with, the Noblesville Parks and Recreation Department (located in Hamilton County, Indiana), either alone or in cooperation with governmental or other bodies or agencies, and to conduct and engage in any and all such activities and endeavors particularly with respect to any fund raising and volunteer coordination.

Section 2.2 Powers.

Except as provided otherwise by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the Foundation shall have all powers which a public benefit not for profit corporation may have if organized under the Indiana Nonprofit Corporation Act of 1991, as amended, and shall have such additional powers as are permitted by any applicable law.

Section 2.3 Prohibited Purposes and Acts.

- A. No part of the net earnings of the Foundation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any of its Directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Foundation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above.

- B. No substantial part of the activities of the Foundation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Foundation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

- C. Notwithstanding any provision of the Articles of Incorporation of the Foundation or any other provision of these By-Laws, the Foundation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on
 - a. By a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or
 - b. By a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a) or 2522(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- D. References in this section to a provision of the Internal Revenue Code shall be deemed to refer to the provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and also to the corresponding provision of any future federal tax law.

ARTICLE 3
Board of Directors

Section 3.1 General Powers and Duties.

The Board of Directors shall direct the management of the business and affairs of the Foundation. The Board of Directors shall set an annual budget, set goals for the coming year, and review goals from the previous year. The Board of Directors may employ and remove such personnel as it deems necessary. Compensation of any employees of the Foundation shall be fixed by the Directors. Payment for services and materials provided to the Foundation shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

Section 3.2 Qualifications of Directors.

Directors shall have an interest in parks and recreation.

Section 3.3 Number.

The number of Directors shall consist of nine (9) members.

Section 3.4 Ex Officio Members.

The President of the Noblesville Parks Board and the Director of the Parks and Recreation Department are ex officio Directors. Ex officio Directors are included in the maximum and minimum numbers allowed for the Board of Directors, and have the right to vote. The Director of the Noblesville Parks and Recreation Department shall not be an Officer of the Foundation.

Section 3.5 Appointment and Selection Body.

Noblesville Appointment and Selection Body shall consist of nine (9) Directors, to be selected or appointed as follows:

Noblesville Mayor appoints	*2
Noblesville City Council appoints	2
Noblesville Parks Board appoints	2
Noblesville Parks Foundation appoints	3

*Includes Park Director as ex officio.

Includes Parks Board President as ex officio.

Section 3.6 Terms and Initial Terms.

Each Director is designated by a number one (1) through nine (9). The Noblesville Parks and Recreation Board President is number one (1) and the Director of the Noblesville Parks and Recreation Department is number two (2). All terms expire on the first Monday in January, but a member continues in office until his or her successor is elected. Directors may be elected to successive terms.

The Noblesville Parks and Recreation Board by an affirmative vote of the majority of Park Board members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall determine the initial term for Directors 3-9 by staggering their terms 1-4 years. As a term expires, each new Board of Director's appointment is for a four (4) year term.

Section 3.7 Resignation.

A Director may resign at any time by informing the Foundation's President or Vice-President.

Section 3.8 Removal.

A Director may be removed with or without cause by an affirmative vote of the majority of the Board.

Section 3.9 Vacancy.

If a Director resigns or is removed before his or her term expires, a replacement director shall serve out the remaining term. The Foundation shall fill the vacancy by reference to the appointing authority corresponding to the vacated directorship.

Section 3.10 Compensation.

No Director of the Foundation shall receive any salary or compensation in his or her capacity as a Director of Officer, provided, however, that nothing in these Bylaws shall prevent any Director from receiving any reasonable compensation for bona fide services rendered or for items purchased for the foundation. Directors may receive reimbursement for out of pocket expenditures connected directly to the Foundation for no more than $50 per occurrence.

Section 3.11 Disclosure of Conflict of Interest.

A Director who is a party to a transaction with the Foundation shall disclose in writing the material facts of the transaction and his or her interest in or relationship to such transaction to the Board of Directors. A Director who has a conflict of interest in a matter shall not vote upon that transaction. A Director who has a conflict of interest in a matter may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors in which the transaction is being voted upon.

Section 3.12 Bonding.

The President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Bookkeeper shall be bonded in an amount to be determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 4 Officers

Section 4.1 Officers Names.

The officers of the Foundation shall consist of a President, Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officer, if any, as the Board of Directors from time to time elect. All officers shall be chosen from among the Board of Directors.

Section 4.2 Election and Term of Office.

The officers of the Foundation shall be elected annually by the Foundation's Directors at the annual meeting. Any vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board of Directors. Each officer shall hold office until his or her successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Section 4.3 Removal.

Any officer of the Foundation may be removed from office by an affirmative vote of the majority of the Board of Directors at any annual, regular or special meeting.

Section 4.4 President.

The President shall be the principal executive officer of the Foundation and shall, in general, supervise and conduct the activities and operations of the Foundation. He or she shall have general supervision of the affairs of the Foundation, and shall keep the Board of Directors fully informed and shall freely consult with them concerning the activities of the Foundation. He or she may sign, alone or with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Foundation, all contracts, deeds, mortgages, bonds, and documents authorized either generally or specifically by the Board of Directors. He or she shall preside at the annual and regular meetings of the Board of Directors. He or she shall perform such other duties as shall from time to time be assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors.

Section 4.5 Vice President.

The Vice President shall have such powers and duties as may be assigned to him or her by the President or the Board of Directors. In the absence, disability, or under the direction of the President, the Vice President shall, in general, perform the duties of the President.

Section 4.6 Secretary.

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors in books proper for that purpose, and wherein resolutions shall be recorded and shall keep a register of the post office address of each Director and officer. He or she shall attend to the giving and serving of all notices of the Foundation. He or she shall be custodian of the corporate records, which shall be located at the Foundation's office.

Section 4.7 Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall be the Foundation's bookkeeper, and shall keep the financial books of account and shall have custody of all funds of the Foundation that may come into his or her hands. He or she shall keep or cause to be kept full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements of the Foundation, and shall deposit all monies and other valuable effects of the Foundation in such banks or depositories as the Board of Directors may designate. Whenever required by the Board of Directors, he or she shall render a statement of his or her accounts. He or she shall at all reasonable times exhibit his or her books and accounts to any officer or director of the Foundation and shall perform all duties customarily incident to the position of bookkeeper, under the supervision of the Foundation's Treasurer subject to control of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 5

Meetings, Notices and Voting

Section 5.1 Meetings.

An annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Foundation shall be held each year upon the call of the President during the month of February for the purpose of electing officers, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. The annual meeting shall be held in the State of Indiana and shall be given at least a two (2) day notice.

Section 5.2 Regular Meetings.

Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held regularly pursuant to a resolution of the Board of Directors to such effect. No notice shall be necessary for any regular meeting.

Section 5.3 Special Meeting for the Transaction of Real Estate and other Foundation Business.

A special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or any two officers. A special meeting of the Board of Directors for the transaction of Real Estate and other Foundation business shall be given at least a two (2) day notice. The Officer or Officers who called the meeting can conduct the meeting in person or via the telephone.

Section 5.4 Special Meeting for the Acceptance of a Gift Other than Real Estate.

A special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or any two officers. A special meeting for the acceptance of a gift other than real estate shall require no notice. The Officer or Officers who called for the meeting can conduct the meeting in person or via the telephone.

Section 5.5 Notice of Meetings.

Any notice shall be given orally or in writing. All notices shall state the location, date and hour of any meeting.

Section 5.5 Waiver of Notice.

Notice of any meeting may be waived in writing by any Director if the waiver sets forth in reasonable detail the location, date and hour of the meeting and purposes thereof. Attendance at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice thereof unless such attendance is for the purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on grounds that the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

Section 5.6 Majority Vote and Quorum.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors present at the annual meeting or regular meetings at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. The affirmative vote by the majority of Directors present or on the telephone at a special meeting shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

A majority of the Directors in office immediately before a meeting begins constitutes a quorum. However, when filling vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors, a majority of the remaining directors shall constitute a quorum.

Section 5.7 Action Without Meeting.

Any action that may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if, prior to such action, written consent setting forth the action to be so taken shall be signed by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors and shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Foundation.

Section 5.8 Voting Rights.

Each Director including ex officio Directors shall have one vote on all matters presented to the Board.

Section 5.9 Voting.

No Director may act by proxy on any matter. The Board of Directors may authorize one or more Directors, or all Directors, to participate in any regular or special meeting, or to conduct a meeting, through the use of telephonic or other means of communication by which all Directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A Director participating in a meeting by this means shall be considered to be present in person at the meeting.

ARTICLE 6
Committees

Section 6.1 Advisory Committees.

The Board of Directors may create advisory committees or other advisory bodies and appoint persons to such advisory committees or bodies who need not be Directors. Such advisory committees or bodies may not act on behalf of the Foundation or bind it to any action, and shall have no authority of the Board of Directors, but may make recommendations to the Board of Directors or to the officers.

ARTICLE 7
Contracts, Financial Transactions and Fiscal Year

Section 7.1 Contracts.

The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents of the Foundation, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Foundation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 7.2 Loans.

No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the Foundation and no evidences of indebtedness shall be issued in the name of the Foundation unless authorized by a resolution of the Board of Directors. Such authority to make loans may be general or confined to specified instances. No loan shall be made by the Foundation to a Director or officer of the Foundation.

Section 7.3 Checks, Drafts, and the Like.

All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidence of indebtedness, issued in the name of the Foundation, shall be signed by the Treasurer if the amount is under $500. If the amount is $500 or more than such instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by one other officer. If the Treasurer is unavailable to perform his or her duties then all checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidence of indebtedness, issued in the name of the Foundation shall be signed by the President and countersigned by one other officer.

Section 7.4 Credit Card Use.

The Treasurer is authorized to secure a credit card in the name of the Foundation. The President or Treasurer shall be authorized to use the Foundation's credit card for legitimate Foundation business. The affirmative vote of the majority of the Directors is required before any credit card purchases over $1,000 (one thousand dollars) are made.

Section 7.5 Deposits.

All funds of the Foundation shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Foundation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as the Board of Directors may select.

Section 7.6 Gifts.

The Board of Directors may accept on behalf of the Foundation any contribution, gift, land, bequest or devise for the general purposes or for any special purpose of the Foundation.

Section 7.7 Fiscal Year.

The fiscal year of the Foundation shall be the calendar year.

ARTICLE 8
Registered Office, Records and Amendments

Section 8.1 Office.

The registered office of the Foundation shall be located at the Noblesville Parks and Recreation Department Main Office.

Section 8.2 Records.

There shall be kept at the office of the Foundation a correct book of accounts of the activities and transactions of the Foundation, including a minute book which shall contain a copy of the Articles of Incorporation, a copy of these Bylaws, the names and addresses of the Board of Directors and officers, and all minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors. All books and records of the Foundation may be inspected by any Director, for any proper purpose at any reasonable time.

Section 8.3 Amendments.

These Bylaws may be amended by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Directors in office at any annual, regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 9

Liability, Indemnification, Insurance and Dissolution

Section 9.1 Limited Liability.

No Director, officer or volunteer who renders service to or for the Foundation without compensation, other than reimbursement for actual expenses, shall be liable, and no cause of action may be brought, for damages resulting from the exercise of judgment or discretion in connection with the duties or responsibilities of such Director, officer or volunteer unless the act or omission constituted willful or wanton conduct.

Section 9.2 Indemnification.

Each person who at any time is or was a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Foundation shall be indemnified by the Foundation in accordance with and to the full extent permitted by the Indiana Nonprofit Corporation Act of 1991 as in effect at the time of adoption of this by-law or as amended from time to time, and by any subsequent Indiana nonprofit corporation law. The foregoing right on indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which an individual seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of Directors or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

Section 9.3 Insurance.

If authorized by the Board of Directors, the Foundation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, volunteer or agent of the Foundation against liability asserted against or incurred by such individual in such capacity, whether or not the Foundation would have the power to indemnify the individual against the same liability.

Section 9.4 Distribution of Assets on Dissolution or Final Liquidation.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of its assets to the Noblesville Parks and Recreation Board. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of as the Board of Directors shall determine and in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable or educational purposes which at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law). Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of general jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located. Disposition of such assets shall be made exclusively for such purposes as are then the same as or similar to the purposes of the Corporation and which are charitable or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future internal revenue tax law.

The foregoing was adopted as the Bylaws of the Noblesville Parks Foundation, Inc., a corporation not-for-profit under the laws of the State of Indiana, on the _____ day of _____, 2013.

IF YOU WRITE, ATTACH THE STUB AT THE END OF THIS NOTICE.

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 46-2573459. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, payments, and related correspondence, it's very important that you use your EIN along with your complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information shown above isn't correct, please send us the correction using the attached tear-off stub.

Annual filing requirements

Most organizations with an EIN have an annual filing requirement, even if they engage in minimal or no activity.

A. If you are tax exempt, you may be required to file one of the following returns or notices:

Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax
Form 990-EZ, Short Form Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax
Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation
Form 990-N, e-Postcard (available online only)

Additionally, you may be required to file your annual return electronically.

If an organization required to file a Form 990, Form 990-PF, Form 990-EZ, or Form 990-N does not do so for three consecutive years, its tax-exempt status is automatically revoked as of the due date of the third return or notice.

Please refer to www.irs.gov/990filing for the most current information on your filing requirements.

B. If you are not tax-exempt, you may be required to file one of the following returns:

Form 1120, U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return
Form 1041, U.S. Income Tax Return for Estates and Trusts
Form 1065, U.S. Return of Partnership Income

Please refer to Publication 1635, Understanding Your EIN, for more information about which forms you may be required to file.

Applying for Tax-Exempt Status

Receiving an EIN from the IRS is not the same thing as receiving IRS recognition of tax-exempt status. To apply for formal recognition of tax-exempt status, most organizations will need to complete either Form 1023, Application for Recognition Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or Form 1024, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(a). Submit the completed form, all applicable attachments, and the required user fee to:

Internal Revenue Service
PO Box 12192
Covington, KY 41012-0192

Publication 557, Tax Exempt Status for Your Organization, has details on the application, process as well as information on returns you may need to file.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS:

- * Keep a copy of this notice in your permanent records. This notice is issued only one time and the IRS will not be able to generate a duplicate copy for you. You may give a copy of this document to anyone asking for proof of your EIN.
- * Use this EIN and your name exactly as they appear at the top of this notice on all your federal tax forms.
- * Refer to this EIN on your tax-related correspondence and documents.
- * Provide future officers of your organization with a copy of this notice.

If you have questions about your EIN, you can contact us using the phone number or address shown at the top of this notice. If you write, please tear off the stub at the bottom of this notice and send it along with your letter. If you don't need to write us, please don't complete and return this stub.

Your name control associated with this EIN is NOBL. You will need to provide this information, along with your EIN, if you file your returns electronically.

Thank you for your cooperation.
